Dear Church Family and Friends,

Apocalyptic. You hear that word (or the idea) a lot these days. It means we live in desperate times. Times like never before. All we hold dear is in danger.

A couple of days ago, an expert from the FBI weighed in. His credentials? He has studied turbulent times similar to today. He said when beliefs and behaviors become extreme, it means people have lost hope.

The greater the hopelessness, the more people will do and say things they would not do otherwise.

It is hard to get perspective when we are neck-deep in all of this. Let's get an outside expert. An eternal point of view. The inspired the writer of Ecclesiastes said, "What has been will be again, what has been done will be done again; there is nothing new under the sun." (Eccles. 1:9)

Remember where your hope comes from...and doesn't. God is not surprised. He is not out of ideas. He is still on His throne.

Love, Pastor Mike

The Joy of Stewardship

Stewardship expresses our obedience and commitment of our self and possessions to God's service.

While God has entrusted us with the care, development, and enjoyment of everything He owns, as His stewards, we are responsible to manage according to His desires and purposes.

We are called to administer our time, money, abilities, information, wisdom, relationships, and authority.

We are ALL called to be joyful stewards.

We are thankful for everyone's faithful, joyful stewardship of Wise Baptist Church. Through your giving, Wise Baptist Church continues to be used by God to change lives.

For those who cannot physically attend Sunday morning worship services in the sanctuary, your tithes and offerings may still be mailed to Wise Baptist Church, PO Box 777, Wise VA 24293, or brought by the Church anytime during open hours.

Thank you all for being joyful stewards of God's work at Wise Baptist Church.

Psalm 95

Come, let us sing for joy to the LORD; let us shout aloud to the Rock of our salvation.

Let us come before Him with thanksgiving and extol Him with music and song.

For the LORD is the great God,
the great King above all gods.

In His hand are the depths of the earth,
and the mountain peaks belong to Him.

The sea is His, for He made it,
and His hands formed the dry land.

Come, let us bow down in worship, let us kneel before the LORD our Maker; for He is our God and we are the people of His pasture, the flock under His care.

Today, if only you would hear His voice, "Do not harden your hearts as you did at Meribah, as you did that day as Massah in the wilderness, where your ancestors tested Me;

they tried Me, though they had seen what I did.
For forty years I was angry with that generation; I said,
'They are a people whose hearts go astray,
And they have not know My ways.'
So I declared on oath in my anger,
'They shall never enter My rest.' "
