Deacons Emeritus:

Dear Church Family and Friends,

We know we should read the Bible more often, but don't. One reason? We cannot connect Scripture with daily life.

Human beings always ask these big questions: What matters in life? How can I live up to that standard? How do I survive human tragedy? Can I make any difference? How do I make sense of life?

These are spiritual questions. The Bible gives the best answers. How can you see and apply those answers?

Work through a book at a time, fifteen verses or less. Read slowly. Reflect.

Look for one idea. For example, if it is generosity, ask God, "How can I be generous today?" Or suppose the passage highlights part of God's character, God's grace. Pray, "How can I express grace today?"

Don't close your Bible until you have one idea to apply.

"The word of God is living and active...able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the human heart." (Heb. 4:12)

Love, Pastor Mike

Having a Heart for Stewardship

Your tithes and offerings allow our Church, and its programs, to be more effective. Through an effective Church, lives are changed. The lack of regular physical attendance has taken a toll on our fellowship and our effectiveness, and our giving. But we can rejoice that God's plan for Wise Baptist Church remains rock solid! Through His protection, embrace, and guiding light, Wise Baptist Church can, and will, change hearts and souls. We are thankful for all the joyful stewards of God's work at Wise Baptist Church.

For those who cannot physically attend Sunday morning worship services in the sanctuary, your tithes and offerings may still be mailed to Wise Baptist Church, PO Box 777, Wise VA 24293, or brought by the Church anytime during open hours.

Love is patient, love is kind. 1 Cor 13:4

Faith Under Fire

The world changes quickly, doesn't it? The author of the Book of Daniel was a teenager when his world turned upside down. His country was conquered. He was forced to live in another country...for the rest of his life! Different culture. Different language. Different religion. Different diet.

Daniel speaks from the most difficult life circumstances. He learned how to live his faith under fire. His faith in God carried him through. The Book of Daniel tells his story. God still teaches us from it.

We face difficult times too. The same God Who helped Daniel can help us too. Join us at 7pm each Wednesday evening for our Bible study on Daniel, "Faith Under Fire". Broadcast on Facebook Live on the Wise Baptist Church Facebook page.

This past week, I was studying the hymn that Susan Mullins and I would be playing, and I was really intrigued about the backstory. "It Is Well With My Soul" is a hymn composed by Horatio G. Spafford (1828 - 1888).

Spafford seemed to get to know misfortune very well in his lifetime. He had lost a small fortune in the Chicago fire, as well as losing his four year old son to scarlet fever around the same time. Later that year, he had sent his wife and four daughters on a vacation to England with aspirations of joining them later. While on their voyage, the ship was sunk and more than 200 people were lost. Anna Spafford, Horatio's wife, was the only survivor out of his family. Horatio left immediately to join his wife in England.

While on his own voyage, the captain pointed out to Horatio the exact spot where the tragedy had happened. Upon observing the point where his daughter's lives were lost, Spafford wrote down his heartfelt thoughts that inspired the hymn. (See Randy Petersen, Be Still My Soul: The Inspiring Stories Behind 175 of the Most-Loved Hymns, p. 153)

When peace like a river, attendeth my way,

When sorrows like sea billows roll

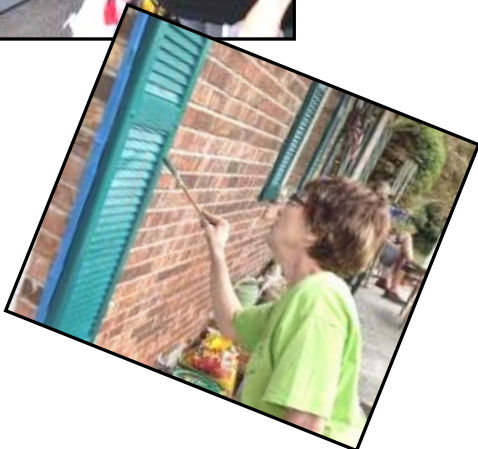

Whatever my lot, Thou hast taught me to know

It is well, it is well with my soul.

We may not always be able to see everything in our life as being well. No matter how carefully a person plans, there will always be setbacks and misfortune. Even when we are at our lowest point, we can be still and know that "it is well with my soul".

*Peace, Love, and Blessings,
Joe*
